

WOODWIND

SALLY ADAMS

Sally Adams' interest in music was fired at the age of 7 when she was offered riding lessons if she passed Grade 1 piano. Thanks to her pony redesigning her front teeth a few years later, she ended up playing the flute. Sally has worked as an advisor for both the Associated Board and Trinity Guildhall examination boards. She was involved setting up the Music Medals exams for both Flute and Recorder. She is an advocate of the Simultaneous Learning approach to teaching.
